From: Dolan Consulting Group
To: Malabed, Ronald (SHF)
Subject: 2019 Webinar Summer Schedule
Date: Monday, June 03, 2019 7:15:51 AM

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

Images not displaying? click here for webpage version.

Improving public perception.
Religious accommodations.
Social media and freedom of speech.

And much more.

Our 2019 summer webinars provide the training
you need without having to leave your office.

Learn more below, or contact us if you have any questions.

"Improving Public Perception of the Police:
Winning Back Your Community"
June 13, 2019 | 2:00-4:00 p.m., eastern

Based on his popular in-person class, Chief Harry P. Dolan (ret.) will review what the research says citizens want from their police agencies and how you can improve citizen satisfaction.

Learn More

"The Real Impact of Residency Requirements"
June 18, 2019 | 2:00-4:00 p.m., eastern

Residency requirements can be a contentious issue, but how effective are they? Without taking a side, Dr. Richard Johnson will examine the social science and economic research on the impact these requirements actually have.

Learn More

"Peer Support for Law Enforcement"
June 27, 2019 | 2:00-4:00 p.m., eastern

Peer and mentoring programs can help you maintain officers' health and identify red flags before a crisis. Capt. Brian Nanavaty (ret.) will help you identify resources to address personal and career crises.

Learn More

"Social Media and Employee Discipline"
June 28, 2019 | 1:00-3:00 p.m., eastern

How can agencies protect both their integrity and their employees' rights to freedom of speech? Do conduct unbecoming standards apply to what someone posts on social media? Attorney Matt Dolan will answer all of this and more.

Learn More

"When You're Liable: Why Failing to Act Gets Supervisors Sued"
July 16, 2019 | 2:00-4:00 p.m., eastern

Failing to supervise toxic officers can make supervisors liable for not doing their jobs. Attorney Dawn Parsons will explain the potential impact of litigation on your personal and professional life—and what you can now to reduce the chances of being liable.

Learn More

"Religious Accommodation in Law Enforcement"

July 30, 2019 | 2:00-4:00 p.m., eastern

Law enforcement leaders need to strike a balance between accommodating officers' religious beliefs and maintaining agency standards. Attorney Matt Dolan will explain how that relates to uniform standards, holiday work requirements, and more.

Learn More

Click here to subscribe to DCG Research Briefs.

If you do not wish to receive future emails from Dolan Consulting Group, click here to opt-out.

Dolan Consulting Group | 2840 Plaza Place, Suite 325 | Raleigh | NC | 27612 | US | 919-805-3020